

Friday 15th May 2009
A day for Primary Teachers at Amaravati Buddhist Monastery

Puzzled by Buddhism?

*A day for Teachers
15th May 2009*

This one day event aims to provide:

- An overview of Buddhist teachings for Primary School Teachers
- Some example activities and lesson plans
- A tour of the Amaravati Monastery
- An overview of Wesak and Kathina festivals
- An opportunity to join the community of monks and nuns for the main meal
- An understanding of the Sangha of monks and nuns and their relationship with lay-people
- Guidance on Buddhist resources for KS 1/2
- Questions and answers

There is no charge for the day. To book a place or for information please email:

Info @ buddhacommunity.org or Administrator @ triplegem.org.uk

The day will commence at 10am and finish at 3.30pm and will be led by Gill Williamson, Head of Breakspeare School and Buddhist representative on Hertfordshire SACRE; and Chris Ward, Buddhist teacher and writer.

We anticipate that one or more ordained monks or nuns will contribute to parts of the day.

Amaravati Monastery Contacts

*Amaravati Monastery,
Great Gaddesden, Hemel Hempstead,
Hertfordshire, HP1 3BZ*

Office Phone : 01442 842455

www.buddhacommunity.org

www.amaravati.org

